

Dear Fuqua Families, Faculty, and Staff,

I am writing to provide a few reminders for the coming week.

Tomorrow, Monday, April 20, is a teacher workday. Teachers will be preparing interim reports for all students. No classes will be held on this day. Interims will be emailed home on Tuesday.

On Monday evening at 7:00 I will host a Zoom video conference for all school families. During the video conference I will update you on the status of our distance learning program and share some preliminary thoughts on how we will close out this year and begin school in August. Families are encouraged to use the “chat” feature of Zoom to ask questions and share ideas. Below is the meeting invitation.

John Melton is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.

Topic: Fuqua School Community Meeting
Time: Apr 20, 2020 07:00 PM Eastern Time (US and Canada)

The week Fuqua School Catering will be sponsoring a Family Spaghetti Dinner for 4. Order online using your Fuqua School Renweb Account by Wednesday, April 22. Curbside pick-up will be offered on Friday from 9am-4pm and coincide with the pick-up and drop-off of Lower School learning packets.

I am looking forward to seeing many of you on Monday evening. For those who are unable to attend, I will be recording the meeting and posting it on the school website for you to view at your convenience.

Go Red! Go Black! GO FALCONS!
